

FAMILY SAFETY NIGHT

LEARN HOW TO PREPARE FOR ANY CRISIS OR SITUATION

Hosted by St. Olaf Lutheran

Open to the Public

Wednesday, May 14, 2008

5:30 pm to 8:00 pm

at 12432 Ninth Street (corner of Lampson)

We've teamed up with community participants such as:

- CHOC medical clinic – tour the CHOC Mobile Safety House
- City of Garden Grove community development – meet the mascot “Rally Raccoon”
- Family Resource Center – learn what's available to families in your community
- Garden Grove Fire & Police – CERT team demonstrations (utility shut off, fire extinguishers, first aid)
- Care Ambulance - EMT's provide kids handouts with tour of ambulance
- Mc Gruff Safe Kids Total ID system – receive ID Packages at the event, no waiting for results.
- A Hero for Life organization – CPR and first aid resource, guest speaker: Scott Lettkering
- Help Me Grow organization – child development resource
- More Prepared – the “Red Pail” vendor with emergency supplies for home, car, school, work, pets & more.

Learn Family Emergency Planning & Safety to help you cope with:

- Theft, Vandalism, Threats or Attacks, personal and child safety.
- Family medical issues, toxic chemical leaks/spills, poisoning and much more.
- Floods, Fires, Hurricanes, Tornados, Earthquakes and natural disasters.
- Guest Speakers and live demonstrations throughout the event.
