SUBJECT: Chief Pharmacist

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is pleased to announce, Rommel Navarro as the Chief Pharmacist. Rommel will serve as the pharmacy lead for pharmaceutical emergency preparedness within the medical and health system. He will coordinate directly with the State and Orange County healthcare facilities to coordinate medical counter measures.

Rommel joins OCEMS with 20 years of pharmacy experience. Most recently Rommel served as the Chief Pharmacist for Correctional Health Services. Additionally, he has served as a consult pharmacist through the COVID-19 pandemic to both EMS and Public Health.

Rommel is well prepared to provide the leadership and facilitation necessary in seeing medical and health emergency preparedness well into the future. We welcome Rommel into his role as the Chief Pharmacist.
