III. Committee Reports

- Heroin Forum Planning Committee – Shelly Lummus and Barbara Van Rooyan
Shelly shared the committee's thoughts on the outcome of the recent community meeting at Dana Hills High School on Tuesday, May 13, 2014. There was a nice turn out although the board hoped for a larger turn out. The agenda was full, and going forward the committee will consider less agenda items. Also, the committee is excited about the community partnerships being established. Finally, Barbara shared an update on the lawsuit filed by the Orange County District Attorney's office against five narcotic manufactures. The board would like to acknowledge the District Attorney's office for their efforts and will send a letter to recognize the work they are doing on this matter.

- Membership – Shelly Lummus

There are a two vacancies on the board. The committee is in the process of reviewing applications and continues to encourage board members to aid in the solicitation of new membership. Particularly, the board would like to have a youth perspective on the board and someone from South County.

- Mental Health Board – Stephen Secord

Stephen updated the board on the Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) Three-Year Program and Expenditure Plan. The plan has been approved by Mental Health Board and the Board of Supervisors. The plan includes a number of new and expanded programs such as Assisted Outpatient Treatment (Laura’s Law/AB 1421), Wellness Center (South County), and a Drop-In Center in Civic Center Plaza, Santa Ana.

IV. Old Business

- None

IV. New Business

Roy Richardson

Roy reported that there has been an increase in hit and runs in Huntington Beach. Roy suggested that the ADAB ask the Board of Supervisors to install additional cameras in those designated areas to pick up on these incidents. Stephen suggested that this discussion be tabled to the July meeting and discussed further during Old Business. Brett suggested that this recommendation be shared with the Orange County Driving Under the Influence (DUI) Task Force and also that a member of the ADAB to attend these meetings.

VI. Behavioral Health Services (BHS) Update: Brett O’Brien

Brett updated the board on the BHS reorganization and introduced Annette Mugrditchian as the Director of Adult and Older Adult Services. Brett also shared information regarding Prevention and Interventions “Here for You” newspaper campaign, an update on the Block Grant and the merging of the California Mental Health Director’s Association (CMHDA) and the County Alcohol and Drug Program Administrators Association of California (CADPAAC).
