Subject: Emergency Medical Services Specialist Announcement

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is pleased to announce and introduce Kirstin Wong as the OCEMS Emergency Medical Services Specialist. Kirstin will work closely with the EMS Coordinators, EMS Section Chiefs, and the EMS Administrator to draw upon her skill and expertise in the administration of state regulations, local policy requirements, and ambulance contract requirements related to Emergency Medical Services ambulance contract compliance, managing electronic data, personnel licensing, and personnel investigations.

Kirstin has experience as an EMT and experience as a Patrol Officer. Her background includes supervising, evaluating, and auditing ambulance crew performance and documentation as a Quality Assurance Supervisor/EMT for an ambulance company to ensure compliance with company performance standards, rules, and regulations. As a Patrol Officer she utilized her training and experience to work cohesively with the public and private sector by responding to calls and requests from the public and interacting with EMS and the Fire Department. Kirstin brings a unique understanding of the administration of public health policy and the administration of public health services.

Kirstin completed her Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice Law Enforcement from California State University, Long Beach, where she also completed an Applied Forensic Science and Crime Analysis Certificate Program. Kirstin also earned a Law Enforcement Academy Certificate (P.O.S.T) from St. Petersburg College in Florida.
