Subject: Emergency Medical Services Facilities Coordinator Announcement

OCEMS is pleased to announce the selection of our new EMS Coordinator, David Johnson. Within this position, David will have primary responsibility for monitoring and addressing all aspects of Emergency Receiving Centers, including specialty designation, compliance, policy review and quality assurance.

As a Registered Nurse (RN), David's professional background includes experience as an EMS quality coordinator and clinical experience in Orange County emergency departments. David has functioned as a chest pain center coordinator and has leadership experience as a director of education.

David has earned an Associate Degree in Nursing and a Bachelor Degree in Psychology and his experience with quality initiatives, management, leadership and education will prove valuable to the Orange County EMS System.

With his expertise we are looking forward to many positive contributions to our EMS system.
