"Avoiding Missed Opportunities - Separating Real from Perceived Contraindications to Vaccination" presented by

Jasjit Singh, MD
Associate Director, CHOC Pediatric Infectious Diseases

Objectives:

- Participants will be able to explain the difference between vaccine contraindications and precautions
- Participants will be able to describe some of the common scenarios that may present questions about administering vaccines, and how to respond to them
- Participants will be able to explain true vs. perceived vaccine contraindications to ensure appropriate vaccination administration
- Participants will be able to identify resources that can help vaccinators, families and patients educate themselves about true vaccine contraindications
