

F ood S afety A dvisory C ouncil of Orange County	"To promote food safety in Orange County through industry and regulatory agency cooperation."
	OC/LA FSAC Meeting Minutes  December 7th, 2018  11:00 AM to 2:00 PM
2018-19 Board:	Cristina Chang, Chair  Todd Frantz REHS, Past Chair  Janet Yaldezian, Treasurer • Erin Thompson, Secretary

Ralph Brennan's Jazz Kitchen
Downtown Disney District
1590 Disneyland Dr, Anaheim, CA 92802

Meeting Called to Order

- OC FSAC Chair Todd Franz calls the meeting to order.
- Todd Franz presents opening remarks and attendee introductions.

Orange & Los Angeles County Year in Review

- Orange County Year in Review presented by Todd Franz and Bao Huynh. Todd recognized the FSAC board members and Bao mentioned that Orange County Health Care Agency is reviewing the new assembly bills that will take effect on January 2019.
- Los Angeles County Year in Review presented by Jason Horn and David Chun. Jason recognized the FSAC board members and said food safety culture is a very important part of our businesses. Three meetings were held focusing on food safety training, employee health, and hygiene at the SoCalGas Company. David was newly promoted to his position with LA County Environmental Health in the middle of 2018. He mentioned that Terri Williams recently retired from LA County. LA County is also reviewing the new assembly bills that will take effect on January 2019.
- Incoming LA & SD FSAC Chair Nicole Wakeham said San Diego will be looking for FSAC board members for the next year. Invitations will be sent out to LA and OC FSAC members.

Announcements

- OC FSAC Board: Erin Thompson and Janet Yaldezian will remain as secretary and treasurer, respectively. Vice chair Cristina Chang will become the new chair. The new vice chair will be determined by the next OC FSAC meeting.
- Winners are drawn for the Toys for Tots raffle.

Lunch and Gift Exchange

Conclusion

- Todd Franz presents parting thoughts.